Dear Parent/carer

We hope that you and your family enjoyed a good break over the festive period. We have looked forward to welcoming your young person back to college so that we can continue

Please find attached your young person's grades for their second half-term in college. These progress grades are current "working at" grades and there is further clarification of the grades underneath the report grades section. If you have any questions about this report, please contact your young person's personal tutor in the first instance.

Any other important information which arises throughout the year will be published and uploaded to the Parent Zone of our college websites:

For students attending the Accrington & Rossendale College Campus:

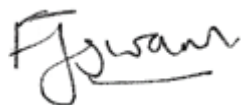

<https://www.accross.ac.uk/about-us/parents-zone/>

For students attending the Nelson & Colne College Campus:

<https://www.nelson.ac.uk/about-us/parents-zone/>

Please visit the website regularly to keep up to date.

Yours faithfully

Fionnuala Swann
